

Name: _____

Winter Break Writing

Choose at least 5 prompts from the grid below. The prompts you choose must be in a row, across, down, or diagonally. Highlight or circle your chosen prompts.

What was your favourite memory from winter break? Describe it in detail.	Write about a family tradition you celebrated over the break. How does it make you feel?	If you could relive one day from winter break, which day and why?	What is something new you tried over the break? How did it go?	Describe the most surprising thing that happened to you during winter break.
What was the best food you ate over winter break? Describe it using your five senses.	If you could swap winter break with summer break, would you do it? Why or why not?	What did you miss most about school while you were on winter break?	Write about the funniest or strangest thing that happened to you over the break.	What is one thing you learned or discovered about yourself during winter break?
Describe a moment during winter break when you felt really happy. What made it special?	What was your favourite book, movie, or show you enjoyed over the break? What made it memorable?	Write about a time you helped someone during winter break. How did it make you feel?	Think of a moment when you were bored during winter break. What did you do to make it more interesting?	What kind of weather did you experience during winter break? How did it affect your activities?
Write about a new friendship or connection you made during winter break.	What's one thing you wanted to do over the break but didn't get the chance to?	How would you summarise your winter break in just three words? Explain why you chose them.	If you could make a "Winter Break Survival Kit," what three items would you include and why?	What was the most peaceful or relaxing moment of your winter break? Describe it in detail.
What was the best gift (tangible or intangible) you received over winter break?	Reflect on a moment when you felt grateful during the break. What made you feel that way?	Write about the people you spent the most time with during winter break. How did they make your break special?	What was one thing that made this winter break different from previous ones?	Did you experience any challenges or problems during the break? How did you overcome them?

